2008 Stagland Family Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon Estate Magnum

This family vineyard in Napa Valley proudly carries a cabernet sauvignon estate wine that receives 91 points from the Wine Advocate. The wine possesses a denser ruby/purple color, more structure and tannin, and hints of toasty oak intermixed with tobacco leaf, black currant and graphite. Slightly closed but very promising, it has a medium to full-bodied, youthful, pure style as well as a wonderful length and finish. Cellar it for several more years and drink it over the following two decades.
